ASFM Members' Newsletter

Issue 20 February 2008

Welcome to the February Digest. Like us, you have probably settled back into the rhythm of your daily activities with school and work and it probably seems all a bit ho hum after the summer break.

We are pleased to welcome you back, both stallholders and customers, and this week Cooida-dried fruit, Bamjacks – jams and pickles, Limestone Coast Trout, Fresh figs from Willabrand, Chomp – biscuits, Adelaide Hills Gourmet Foods – gluten, dairy and MSG free take-home meals.

Hot off the press:

At last real progress on junk food advertising and GM!

The SA Government has announced that they will continue the SA moratorium on GM production.

John Hill, SA Minister for Health, has announced that if necessary he will legislate to curb junk food advertising during children's programming.

Renew your membership to receive the special Member offers below:

Showground parking reduced to $2 for 08 members

We would like to acknowledge the RA&HS for supporting this initiative that we hope will alleviate congestion around the area on Sunday morning and make it easier for our members to shop.

February Members' Prizes:

Simon Bryant launching the Kids' club last week!

Kids' Club - We had a very successful launch last week. Simon Bryant is our Kids' Club patron and will be filming a segment for the Cook and the Chef on the 24th February. Each week we will have activities, games and/or cooking sessions. So come along and join in. However, it is not a baby sitting service and parents are asked to accompany their children. You can help out though if you would like to, just see the week's coordinator.

ASFM AGM

Our first AGM will be held on Tuesday March 18th 2008 6pm. All 08 members will receive further info by post at the end of February. If you would like to nominate for the committee please ring the office on 8231 8155 or send in your nomination via email admin@asfm.org.au

Nominations close on 20th February.
